

A warm, dimly lit restaurant interior. In the foreground, two bottles of wine stand on a wooden table next to a wooden charcuterie board filled with meats, cheeses, and vegetables. In the background, two women are engaged in conversation; one is holding a wine glass and the other is holding a bottle. A candelabra with lit candles is visible on the right, and a wine rack is on the left. The word "Restaurant" is overlaid in a large, white, cursive font across the center of the image.
